

Don't Wear A Last Year's Suit

This spring and summer unless circumstances compel you to,

You are sure to feel uncomfortable when you see your friends and acquaintances attired in this season's attractive suits. Styles have changed so radically that nine men out of ten will feel out of place in an old style suit.

We have the greatest line of Suits to Select From

That can be found in Hopkinsville.

To truly appreciate the new designs and fabrics we are showing this season, you want to see them.

It will be a pleasure to show them.

J. T. WALL & CO.

The Old Reliable Jewelry House

of Hopkinsville is, after all, the best place to get anything in the Jewelry line. There's a record behind us, a record of over thirty years; a clean record of satisfied customers, a record of honest dealing, for honest quality, honest prices. It's a record any Jeweler might feel proud of. And when we sell an article we have in mind that we have a record to maintain, and no slipshod methods, no careless workmanship, no lack of quality, is ever allowed to mar the record of the past. But to improve, if possible, this record, is ever our aim, and goods are sold for as low a price as it is possible to sell reliable goods.

It will pay you in the end to deal with the Old Reliable Jeweler.

New York Life.

Hopkinsville, Ky., April 30th, 1906.
Mr. Walter F. Garnett, Agent,
New York Life Insurance Co.,
City.

Dear Sir:—
It gives me pleasure to acknowledge receipt of statement of optional settlement on 20-Payment Life Policy, No. 228,593, for $1,500.00, issued at age 35, with premium of $52.50, taken out with you Apr. 29, '86. After having been insured for 20 years, I am offered a paid up policy for $1,500 and a cash dividend of $406.88, or the total value may be withdrawn in cash—$1,215.85, (which is more than I have paid in in the 20 years) or a fully paid up policy payable at my death for $2,219.00.
The cash settlement of $1,215.85 is equal to Term Insurance at $12.87 per $1,000 and an investment of the balance of premiums with 5 1/2 per cent. compound interest for twenty years. This showing is certainly a creditable one for the New York Life, and I will be pleased to give you my application for $1,000 on the Ordinary Life plan.
Yours very truly,
C. E. WEST.

MORE PLANT BEDS SCRAPED

Several Farmers Near Fairview Are the Victims.

VANDALS NOT CAUGHT.

Messrs. Leavell and Garnett Unite in Offering Reward of $600.

J. M., T. M. and Alex Harned, farmers living five miles north of Fairview on the Pilot Rock road, were the victims of plant bed vandals Wednesday night. Their beds were scraped and destroyed, as were those of three other farmers the night before. This additional outrage of course added to the bitterness that has been aroused. J. M. Harned is a member of the association, the others are not.

The bloodhounds sent to L. L. Leavell's farm Wednesday could not track the parties after they reached their buggies. There were five men in the party, two rubber-tired buggies being used by them and one man was on horseback. Mr. J. F. Garnett says the same party that destroyed Mr. Leavell's beds scraped his.

These gentlemen, being the heaviest sufferers, have united in a reward of $600, which is in this paper.

Mr. Leavell is guarding his remaining beds and will raise a half-crop. Mr. Garnett is greatly discouraged. He says he would rather sell out and leave the county than stand in constant fear of having his property destroyed and may be his barns burned. Mr. Garnett until this year was a member of the association. It is said that many farmers are joining the association who have not heretofore been members. There were many fresh rumors of additional acts of lawlessness yesterday, but none were verified.

The Kentuckian has nothing but words of condemnation for this sort of lawlessness. The officials of the Tobacco Association denounce such methods, but public sentiment is looking for something more than mere words. The association owes it to itself, to public opinion and to a proper respect for law to help discover and punish these miscreants.

If they are members of the union they should be expelled. Law-abiding citizens should not associate themselves with anarchists. There is no evidence connecting association members with these outrages and it is even claimed that they were perpetrated by enemies intent on injuring the union. The fact, however, that the chief victims were non-union planters, and that threats have been made in some places against those outside of the union, makes it all the more important that the association should promptly take steps to clear its good name of even a breath of suspicion.

We do not live in Russia and there must be no anarchy tolerated in Christian country.

The Kentuckian is on the side of the farmers, is anxious to see the Protective Association a permanent success, but we warn its members that its success must come as a lawful association of good citizens and not as a body harboring suspected law-breakers.

It is but a short step from plant bed-scraping to barn-burning and the offenses are morally if not legally on a par. When men who ride in rubber tired buggies go about the country under cover of darkness and destroy the property of negro croppers dependent upon their labor for a living, it is time to know who is responsible for such acts. Let there be no retaliation, but let all good citizens help fix the blame where it belongs, then let the heavy hand of the law fall on the guilty parties.

JUNE TERM OF COURT.

There Are Nearly Five Hundred Cases on the Docket.

CIVIL MATTERS FIRST.

Commonwealth Business to Open With Two Murder Cases.

Yesterday was the last day for filing suits for the approaching term of Circuit court. There are 475 cases on the docket, divided as follows: Continued equity, 192; continued common law, 61; common law appearances, 22; equity appearances, 69; commonwealth 119.

At the June term the civil docket will be disposed of before the commonwealth cases are called. Heretofore the commonwealth docket has been disposed of before common law and equity matters were taken up. This order will be reversed.

All of the indictments found at the spring term will be called on the second day of the June term and reset for dates after the 15th day of the term.

The case of Gene Duffy, colored, charged with murder, is set for the 15th day of the term.

The case of John Cheaney, under indictment for murder, is set for the 17th day. Court convenes Monday, June 4, for a four weeks session.

UNIVERSALISTS.

Kentucky Universalists assembled in convention here yesterday and the session will last over Sunday. The welcome address was delivered by Mr. C. O. Prowse, Dr. J. W. Long responding. The roll call showed nearly all the churches represented, and other delegates were expected to arrive last night. The address by the President, Mrs. J. W. Long, closed yesterday morning's exercises.

In the afternoon the various committees were appointed, after which there were several addresses. Judge Polk Cansler, Prof. W. E. Gray and Miss Nora Rogers addressed the meeting on the subject of "Universalist Church and Its Mission." Mr. Logan, H. A. Current and Mrs. Smith spoke on "Relation of the Sunday-school to the Work of the Church," and Mrs. M. L. Teague, Mrs. Ellen Bowles, John P. Prowse and Mrs. Geo. M. Clark addressed the body, their subject being "Our Women and Their Work." There was a sermon last night.

After devotional exercises this morning there will be a business meeting. Following this there will be music and recitations. At 11 o'clock there will be addresses by C. A. Brasher, F. H. Renshaw, W. H. Moore and others, the subject being the "Outlook of the Universalist Church."

The election of officers will take place this afternoon.

UNION AFFECTED.

All plans for the union of Cumberland and Northern Presbyterian churches have been consummated and "the basis of reunion and union is now in full force and effect," as announced by Moderator Corbett. There were 160 votes for union and 100 against it in the Cumberland Assembly at Decatur, Ill. The large vote in the Northern Assembly at Des Moines was unanimous, less the vote of a commissioner from Pennsylvania and another from Illinois. After the vote was taken at Des Moines the Cumberland Assembly at Decatur adjourned sine die. The Cumberland church here, with very few exceptions, were opposed to the union, as was their late pastor, Dr. J. L. Wyatt, though he expressed his intention of going with his assembly if it went into the Northern assembly. "What the local church will now do is not known.

CARNIVAL COMES ALL NEXT WEEK.

Robertson Amusement Co. With Fine Line of Shows.

HELD IN MERCER PARK.

From Monday Until Saturday There Will Be Something Doing.

The May Festival to be given jointly by the Fire Co. and the K. P. Uniform Rank, will begin Monday for a full week, the Robinson Amusement Company furnishing the attractions. The pay shows will all be in Mercer Park. The various committees, with Chas. O. Prowse as chief director, are hard at work and the prospects are good for a great carnival.

A Healthy Month.

May has been one of the healthiest months of the year. The undertakers have had a good resting spell and we are told that the sexton of Hopewell Cemetery has dug but one grave during the month. Hard on the undertakers but good for the people.

Long Drouth.

That the farmers as well as gardeners of the city are needing rain badly every one knows. Forty boxes of pint and half-pint bottles were unloaded in front of a Main street saloon yesterday, which is a pretty good sign that Hopkinsville is going to stay "wet" for some time to come.
